

Name: _____

Date: _____

AP HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

Across

3. A state in which the distance from the center to any boundary does not vary significantly, for example Zimbabwe

5. A state that contains two or more ethnic groups with traditions of self-determination that agree to coexist peacefully by recognizing each other as distinct nationalities, Pakistan for example

11. An area with no direct access to the ocean, an example of this is Hungary

13. When the boundary appears to be a distinctive line, for example the boundary between Russia and Poland

14. An organized nation or territory considered to be an organized political community under one government, France is an example of this

15. A sovereign state comprising a city and its immediately surrounding countryside, for example ancient Greece

16. A portion of a state geographically separated from the main part by surrounding alien, an example of this is Kaliningrad

17. A political term for ethnic/national minority that does not possess its own state and is not the majority population in any nation state, an example of this is Serbia

19. A state that is between two or more hostile countries, Georgia acted as one

20. A nation that transcends the borders of two or more states

Down

1. A naturally occurring barrier between two areas, France and Spain is an example of this

2. A portion of territory within or surrounded by a larger territory whose inhabitants are culturally or ethnically distinct, for example Chinatown

4. When referring to the fragmentation or break up of a region or country into smaller regions or countries, an example of this is Yugoslavia

6. An otherwise compact state with a large projecting extension, an example is Thailand

7. A state that encompasses a very small land area, for example Monaco

8. A sovereign state whose citizens or subjects are relatively homogeneous in factors such as language or common descent, an example of this is Iceland

9. A state with a long, narrow shape, an example of this is Thailand

10. A state that completely surrounds another one, an example is South Africa

12. A territory that is legally tied to a sovereign state rather than completely independent, an example is Cologne

18. A large aggregate of people united by common descent, history, culture, or language, inhabiting a particular country or territory, an example of this is Palestine