

Chapter 5 Section One Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. range of political views
6. A political party's statements of ideas, policies, and beliefs are called a?
9. everyone who can vote in a given election
11. political system with two major parties is what?
13. A person who believes in more individual responsibility & less in governmental control is a?
15. A temporary alliance of several groups that come together to form a working majority and control government is a?

16. The republican & democratic parties are called?

17. Party that controls the executive branch of government is?

18. firm allegiance to a political party

Down

1. A small political party that rises and falls with charismatic candidate is called a?

2. A person who currently holds office

4. A political system that only one party exists is a?

5. The tool voters use to vote is called a?

7. competing groups are called?

8. A person that isn't really concerned about governmental control, but is more open to change is called a?

10. To select a candidate to run for a political office

12. narrow minded concern for or devotion to, the interests of one of a country

14. two major parties find common ground