

Name: _____

Date: _____

Julius Caesar

Across

3. he lured Antony from the senate allowing the others time to stab Caesar.

9. Title of the play

10. He is a friend of Caesar but joins the conspiracy because he loves Rome more than his friend ship.

12. He has the gift of flattery and persuades Caesar to attend the Capitol on the Ides of March. He interprets Calpurnia's dream in a positive manner

14. Wife of Caesar

15. a good friend of Caesar but reputedly more interested in pleasurable pursuits. He is an excellent orator who uses this skill to incite the people of Rome to rebellion when he speaks over the body of Caesar

Down

1. A senator and famous orator. The triumvirs have him executed.

2. he gains Caesar's attention by asking for a pardon for his banished brother, thus allowing the other conspirators to surround Caesar and stab him.

4. Brutus wife and sister of Cassius

5. wrote a letter to Caesar warning him about his future death

6. Said "Beware the Ides of March"

7. the last member of the conspiracy who meets with Brutus

8. Brutus' brother-in-law. An EXCELLENT judge of character. Argues that Antony should also be eliminated and later he should not speak at Caesar's funeral

11. a senator and shrewd member of the conspiracy. He is the first one to stab Caesar.

13. conspirator who leaves the letters in places where Brutus will find them.