

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Drama Terms

Across

3. the conversation between two characters

5. objects that the actors use during the play

8. a raised platform where acting takes place

10. a work written as if the character are talking to each other and that meant to be performed before an audience

11. a major section of a play that includes two or more scenes

12. the less important character

14. instructions for the director, actors, and the stage crew that are included in the script

Down

1. a building or area for dramatic performances

2. the character that the play focuses on

4. a character who provides a striking contrast to the main character

6. the text of the play, movie or broadcast

7. the teller of the story

9. the items that are on the stage that help create the setting

13. a section of the play presenting events that occur at one place at one time