

The Texas Revolution

Across

- This woman helped several Texans avoid execution, she was called, "The Angel of Goliad," and she was the wife of a Mexican army officer.
- This man became a captain in the Texas army, he served in the Alamo, and was elected to the Texas Senate.
- This man offered Davy Crockett I command in the regular army, he arrived at the Alamo with 30 horse man, and he joined the Alamo garrison.
- This man led the attack on the Alamo.
- This man was a well-known public figure, a legend of the front tier, and a skilled sharpshooter, hunter, and storyteller
- This man fought for the Mexicans, led about 1000 soldiers, and asked Santa Anna to spair prisoners lives.
- This man was the first president of Texas, and he established a new government in Harrisburg.
- This man sold a land grant to Noah and Nancy Tevis, He was in Empresario, and he contributed time, energy, and resources to Texas.

Down

- This man has a consolation name him as their commander, he wasn't given much is the already, and he called the war council of his highest ranking officers.
- This man was a colonel who decided that the Alamo had to be defended.