

Name: _____

Social Psychology

Across

3. The type of empathy we are using when we know how to respond to another person's feeling about an event?
5. This can lead to an increase in suicide and divorces.
7. Tendency to overestimate our powers of prediction once we know the outcome of a given event.
10. The hormone that rises when we become aggressive.
12. The concept that being exposed to recent information will influence your decisions and choices.

13. What type of empathy are we using when we can understand how someone else experiences a event?
14. Our social psychology book was written by?
15. A mental shortcut.
17. A change in a person's behavior or opinion as a result of pressure.

Down

1. When a person gives up a high degree of themselves in order to obtain a goal they may use this type of justification?
2. This happens at the end of a study.
4. Leon Festinger is best known for what theory?

6. When using attributions to judge people it is more humane to assume things are happening due to?
8. If someone hurts another person they may use this concept to make it ok.
9. Diffusal of responsibility was seen in which researchers experiment about shock treatment?
11. In attraction, this can make a difference.
16. Making choices without thinking about them.
18. The Bystander Effect states how many people are best to have around if we need assistance?