

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

A Seperate Piece Vocabulary

Across

5. Describes the eternaty of the exercise of the seniors go through.

7. an appeal to ethics, and it is a means of convincing someone of the character or credibility of the persuader.

9. The way Gene felt on his first day at the school.

11. A condition in which there is no leadership and which results in chaos.

13. An apt description of Finny, easy to get hurt.

14. the choice and use of words and phrases in speech or writing

21. is the repetition of the last word of a preceding clause. The word is used at the end of a sentence and then used again at the beginning of the next sentence.

22. figure of speech in which apparently contradictory terms appear in conjunction

23. A wound or injury on a part of someone's body where it is permanently damaged.

26. A description of the characteristics of Brinker

27. Synonymous of speck or particle, a tiny piece of a substance.

31. exaggerated statements or claims not meant to be taken literally.

34. From old french deigmier (modern french daigner) from latin dignari " to deem worthy of, or fit to"

35. Something is said or asked more than about the substance of the question. A question in which it does not require an answer.

37. Used to describe the effort needed to jump from the infamous tree into the water, without getting hurt.

38. Creating an intrist in someone to do something be flattering or deception.

40. the study of the origin of words and the way in which their meanings have changed throughout history.

Down

1. insulting, abusive, or highly critical language.

2. Literal meaning "lighting war" Battle tactic of an overwhelming attack.

3. special words or expressions that are used by a particular profession or group and are difficult for others to understand.

4. mental sharpness and inventiveness; keen intelligence.

6. humorous or emphatic effect

8. Used to descride Finny's hair when he comes out of the water and his hair plastered rather crazily on his head.

10. a thing or event that existed before or logically precedes another.

12. 2 things placed close together with contrasting effects.

15. Game created by Finny. Where he alters the rules suddenly to gain himself an advantage.

16. a modulation of the voice expressing a particular feeling or mood.

17. Simply means comfort, something offered or given especially in a time of sadness or grief.

18. Figurative Language: BOOM!!! Drip.

19. the use of humor, irony, exaggeration, or ridicule to expose and criticize people's stupidity or vices, particularly in the context of contemporary politics and other topical issues.

20. Refers in an odd good mood a person has before they die.

24. visually descriptive or figurative language, especially in a literary work.

25. Figurative Language: He is the black sheep of the family.

28. Originated in the late 16th century from latin it means "peirced through" from the verd transfigere, from trans-"across" to figere "fix, fasten"

29. Narrator and protagonist, He is thoughtful and intelligent with a competitive nature and a tendency to brood.

30. Rather formal, or antiquated word which simply means spacious or containing plenty of room

32. an appeal to emotion, and is a way of convincing an audience of an argument by creating an emotional response.

33. Figurative Language: as brave as lions. red like a rose.

36. Neither a narrator nor protagonist, yet central to the novel. Wild, acts above the rules.

39. an appeal to logic, and is a way of persuading an audience by reason.