

Important People of the Texas Revolution

Across

5. I was a slave owned by William B. Travis. I was forced to fight for the Texans, but I was able to leave to help inform others that the Alamo was unsuccessful.
7. I fought for the Texans and I was a well-known frontier fighter that fought with a knife that was later named after me.
8. I was the commander of consultation for the Texans. I helped Texas prepare for war.
9. I was the wife of an officer that was only allowed to leave to inform others about the results of the Alamo. I survived the Alamo.
10. I was a wife of a Mexican army officer that helped many Texans avoid execution by urging that doctors and some others be spared. She was known as the angel of Goliad.

Down

1. I arrived in San Antonio with 12 volunteers several days after William B. Travis. He then offered me a position in the army but I declined.
2. I arrived in San Antonio on February 3 with 30 horsemen. I offered Crockett a position in the army but he declined.
3. I thought that we should have withdrawn from Goliad because it would have helped Texas in the end, but I failed and we stayed with Goliad.
4. I was the only tejano to serve in the senate of the Republic of Texas.
6. I fought for the Mexicans and led the attack of the Alamo.
