An Industrial Society

Across

3. Who controlled the steel industry?

6. An organization of workers from all different trades formed after the civil war.

9. Who was the labor leader that helped found a new national organization called the American Federation of Labor (AFL).

11. A person who gives large amounts of money to charities.

14. The inventor of electricity.

15. What is a government document giving an inventor rights to or to sell his or her inventions?

16. What is the pattern of good and bad times in the economy?

17. A railroad that spanned across the entire continent.

19. A nationwide railway strike that spread throughout the rail industry in 1894.

20. What is the oily, and flammable liquid most Americans used to light their oil lamps?

Down

1. A new way of making steel that was developed in the 1850's and caused steel production to soar.

2. The inventor of the telephone.

4. What system was adopted in 1918 that divided the United States into four time zones?

5. Who lead the oil industry at this time?

7. What was a business owned by investors who buy part of the company through shares of stock?

8. A company that that eliminates its competitors and controls an industry.

10. A place where workers labored long hours under poor conditions for low wages.

12. What is the union protest named that resulted with about 100 dead after an unknown person threw a bomb?

13. A national organization of labor unions founded in 1886.

18. A legal body created to hold stock in many companies, often in the same industry.