

Baseball

Across

2. the game where the best baseball players in the MLB come together to play one big game; included in all star week
6. the positions played by the right, center, and left fielders
10. a person who controls the training of a sportsman or team
11. A homerun hit while all bases are loaded.
14. A runner crosses home plate without any errors.
15. a player who swings a bat or whose turn it is to bat
16. The recorded number of steals by a runner.
17. A mistake in fielding the baseball by the defense that allows a batter to reach base or a base runner to advance.
18. an annual series of games between the winning teams of the two major leagues: the first team to win four games being champions of the U.S.
23. The pitcher who starts the game.
24. A pitch so wide that the catcher is unable to catch or block it, allowing runners to advance.
25. the player who throws the ball to the opposing batter
26. a boy or young man who takes care of the bats and sometimes other equipment of a team.

Down

1. a home run scored in the bottom of the final inning to win the game.
3. The replacement for the starting pitcher.
4. Relief pitcher who finishes out the game.
5. Three players are taken out in the course of one play.
7. One of nine periods of playtime in an ordinary regulation game.
8. any of the four defensive players stationed around the infield.
9. the minigame where you try to hit the most homeruns; included in allstar week
12. the player stationed behind home plate, whose chief duty is to catch pitches not hit by the batter.
13. When the pitch count has 3 balls and 2 strikes. The next strike or ball will end the at bat. If the batter hits the baseball foul, then the count remains 3 and 2.
19. The next batter in the line-up.
20. A defense play resulting in two outs.
21. a game in which the pitcher does not allow a single runner on base.
22. After striking the ball, the batter is able to pass through all four plates and return to home with no errors on the part of defense.