

Changing Family Patterns (Families and Households)

Across

3. When a women is pregnant
4. A sociologist who points out that most people get married at some point of their lives (its societies norm)
5. When couples divorce and have had children they become a
6. When two people separate legally
9. A sociologist who studied with Clark about cohabitation being a good idea
10. Changes is people
15. when two people are married but only go through the motions. (they are not legally divorced)
17. When two people living together
19. People don't live up to

21. when a parent is divorced and gets married to another person who may have had children before
22. One parent looking after their child

23. To have serval marriage partners and always ends up in divorce

Down

1. Two people of the same sex getting together
2. When two people are married but live apart
7. they can not find a soultion to keep the marriage going
8. It is more socially accepted to get divorced now
11. The breakdown of traditional religious

12. When people get together with a legal agreement

13. changes in the postion of

14. the family today includes cousins, uncles/aunties etc.

16. married to one person

18. Changes in (making it easier for men/women to get divorced)

20. a sociologist who says the nuclear family suffer from emotional overload