

Chapter 21

Across

2. growth of cities resulting from industrialization
 4. an American sociologist, historian, civil rights activist, Pan-Africanist, author, and editor.
 8. free time
 10. a blend of African-American songs and European musical forms
 12. an 1896 case in which the supreme court ruled that separation of the races in public accommodations was legal
 14. separation, especially of races
 15. a pioneer American settlement activist/reformer, social worker, public philosopher, sociologist, author, and leader in women's suffrage and world peace.

18. an organization that influences enough votes to control a local government

19. a Hungarian-American newspaper publisher of the St. Louis Post Dispatch and the New York World. Pulitzer introduced the techniques of yellow journalism to the newspapers he acquired in the 1880s.

20. the process of blending into society

Down

1. laws meant to enforce separation of white and black people in public places in the south

3. a common culture experienced by large numbers of people

5. a movement aimed at improving the lives of the poor

6. the first stop in the united states for most immigrants coming from Europe

7. a place where cultures blend

9. famous political machine located in New York city in the late 19th century

11. an apartment building that is usually run-down and overcrowded

13. founded in 1889, a model for other settlement houses of the time

16. the first stop in the united states for immigrants coming from Asia

17. a neighborhood with overcrowded and dangerous housing