

Name: _____

15-17 Test

Across

3. A period of time that an intoxicated person cannot recall is called _____.
5. The consequence of taking an excessive amount of a drug that leads to coma or death is called _____.
9. An extremely addictive chemical in tobacco products is called _____.
10. The process that creates alcohol, in which microorganisms called yeast feed on sugars is called _____.
13. The charge given to a driver over 21 caught driving with a BAC that exceeds 0.08 percent, or to a driver under the age of 21 with any detectable BAC is called _____.
14. A dark, sticky, substance that forms when tobacco burns is called _____.
15. another word for marijuana is called _____.
18. The consumption of excessive amounts of alcohol in one sitting is called _____.
20. Drugs that first gained popularity in dance clubs and raves is called _____.
21. A breathable chemical vapor that produces mind-altering effects is called _____.

23. Smoke that is exhaled by a smoker's lungs is called _____.

26. A disease is that results in gradual loss of lung function is called _____.
27. A legal drug that helps the body fight injury, illness, or disease is called _____.
28. This product is placed between the lower lip and teeth or is sniffed. A smokeless tobacco product that consists of moist powder is called _____.
29. A policy that enforces strict consequences for underage drinking is called _____.
30. The state in which a person's mental and physical abilities are impaired by alcohol or another substance is called _____.

Down

1. White patches on the tongue or lining of the mouth that may be cancerous is called _____.
2. A poisonous, colorless, and odorless gas produced when substances are burned is called _____.
4. An illegal opiate made from morphine in a laboratory is called _____.
6. A medicine that is sold legally in pharmacies and in other stores without a doctor's prescription _____.

7. synthetic drugs that are similar to hormone testosterone is called _____.

8. A combination of mainstream smoke and sidestream smoke; also known as environmental tobacco smoke is called _____.
11. A disorder in which a damaged alveoli in the lungs can no longer take in adequate oxygen and eliminate carbon dioxide this disorder is called _____.
12. A type of drug that increases the activity of the nervous system is called _____.
16. other names are "crank, crystals, or ice" and is more powerful amphetamines is called _____.
17. A chemical that is taken to cause changes in a person's body or behavior is called _____.
19. A drug that slows brain and body reactions is called _____.

22. another name is "acid" the drug is called _____.
24. An unwanted physical or mental effect caused by a drug is called _____.
25. The condition that results when the brain develops a chemical need for a drug and cannot live without it is called _____.