

Information Writing

Across

- 3. 11. A paragraph that contains facts and statements to support your claim or topic
- 5. 8. A sentence in a writing that grabs the readers attention
- 8. 15. To become or make more intense
- 12. 6. The end or finish of an event or process
- 14. 1. Assembled spectators or listeners at a public event
- 16. 14. Phrases that show the relationship between paragraphs
- 17. 16. To show or prove to be right or reasonable

- 19. 17. A person or thing that is similar to another

Down

- 1. 13. A sentence that expresses the main idea of paragraph in which it occurs
- 2. 9. An essay that educates the reader on your topic
- 4. 2. A form of writing generally done to inform the audience of an significant event
- 6. 10. A document that gives you information on a topic and how your story should be written
- 7. 5. A piece of writing that has the events arranged in order

- 9. A short statement, usually are a sentence that summarizes the main point of a claim

- 10. 3. An account of someones life written by someone else

- 11. 19. A brief statement of the main points of a piece of writing

- 13. 18. A mission or a journey someone goes on that is dangerous or fun

- 15. 4. The main section of an essay, summary, or story

- 18. 7. A newspaper or magazine article or a broadcast program