

Election Vocabulary

Across

2. A supporter for a specific candidate.

4. A document listing the different people running for office that is used in voting.

6. A person who currently holds the office that people are running for.

9. Democrat state.

12. The involvement of common citizens in an issue or campaign.

13. A political campaign speech, especially one made on a campaign tour.

Down

1. The actual vote count.

3. A person running for office.

5. A voter or candidate who does not belong to a political party.

7. A preliminary election where delegates or nominees are chosen.

8. Where people go to vote.

10. Republican State.

11. Another name for the republican party, formally known as the Grand Old Party.