

Exploring Careers

Across

1. an individual's feelings, actions, habits, and thoughts
3. a work schedule that allows workers to choose work hours that fit their particular needs
4. ideas a person lives by
9. a skill that has been developed
12. the things about work that are important to a person
16. what a person does for pay
20. a group of people who work together to set goals and make decisions to solve problems and put ideas into action
21. a set of related job skills and experiences
22. working at least 40 hours per week
23. the potential a person has for learning a skill
25. items that people sell

26. knowing one's own thoughts, feelings, and actions

28. using outside resources to perform activities traditionally handled by internal company staff

29. activities people do for others for a fee

30. all the world's economies and how they are linked

31. equal employment opportunity for all, regardless of gender

32. the different ways people naturally think and learn

Down

2. the way a person uses his or her time, energy, and other resources
5. a wide variety of workers with different backgrounds, experiences, ideas, and skills in the work place
6. all people over the age of 16 who work or are seeking work

7. the need for workers and the kind of work available to them

8. working at home for a company

10. building structures

11. designing and constructing structures that enclose space to meet human needs

13. values that reflect the importance of money in a person's happiness

14. a flexible work arrangement that allows 2 part time employees to divide one full-time job

15. the ability to perform a task due to training and experience

17. favorite activities

18. the buying and selling of goods and services via the internet

19. a work history of one or more jobs in the same or related fields of interests

24. a change over a period of time

27. the ways people make, buy, and sell goods and services