

Natural Hazards

Across

1. A sudden colapse of the ground caused by natural erosion.
2. A series of ground vibrations.
5. an unsual dryness of soil caused by low rain fall over a prolonged period.
9. Servere winter storm.
10. A rupture in the earths crust where lava can escape.
11. Perido of a unusually and excessively hot weater.
12. A series of waves caused by the displacement of a large volume of water.

Down

3. A fire in a area of combustibile vegetation that occursin the countryside.
4. Violent rotating column of air.
6. Storm with violent wind.
7. A mass of snow falling rapidly down a moutain.
8. Overflowing of water on land.