

Name: _____

Nonfiction Text Features

Across

- 3. dark letters that indicate a hard or important word
- 6. slanted letters indicating important information
- 9. a photograph or illustration to help the reader understand the text
- 10. data shown in an organized way to help the reader compare information
- 11. text describing the contents of a picture, graph, chart, or map

12. tells the reader how to say a new or difficult word

13. a phrase at the top of the text that tells the reader what the text is going to be about

14. phrases related to the heading or title that tell what each section will be about

Down

1. a drawing or picture of a specific area

2. additional information that relates to a topic

4. words printed in different colors indicating important information

5. a labeled illustration used to explain something

7. the main idea or topic of the text

8. a visual representation of important events in chronological order