

Cameron's Word Puzzles

Across

1. Caricature: picture description or imitation of a person or thing in which certain striking characteristics are
3. Metonymy: substitution of the name of an attribute or
4. Apostrophe: speaker indirectly addresses someone or something that isn't present in the 12. Synecdoche: a figure of speech in which a part is made to represent the whole or vice
14. Soliloquy: act of speaking one's thoughts
15. Polysyndeton: literary technique in which conjunctions are used repeatedly in quick succession, with no
16. Colloquial: not formal or
19. Caesura: a break between within a metrical

20. Anaphora: the use of word referring to or replacing a word used earlier in a
 22. Consonance: repetitive sounds produced by consonants within a sentence or
 23. Couplet: two lines of verse normally in the same meter and joined by a rhyme which forms a
 24. Soliloquy: act of speaking one's thoughts
 25. Assonance: the repetition of the sound of a vowel in non-rhyming stressed
- Down
2. Trochaic: basic metrical unit called a foot consisting of two
 5. In medias res: into the middle of a
 6. Antagonist: character which stands in opposition of the protagonist or the main
 7. Foreshadow: writer gives an advance hint of what is to come later in the

8. Asyndeton - absence of a conjunction between parts of a
9. Conceit - kind of a metaphor that compares two very unlike things in a surprising or clever
10. Antithesis: two opposite ideas are put together in a sentence to achieve a contrasting
11. Ode: form of poetry such as sonnet or elegy, read in ways poets praise people, natural scenes and abstract
13. Paradox: contrary to expectations, existing belief or perceived
17. Iambic: contains unaccented and short syllables followed by a long and accented syllables in a single line of
18. Foreshadow: writer gives an advance hint of what is to come later in the 21. Quatrain: stanza of four