

Dreaming of Light

Across

- 1. What is an extreme exaggeration used for emphasis?
- 6. Regile works for ... Mafuso
- 8. Papa Mavuso's name is an example of ... irony. He is not loving and caring.
- 10. Who is the motif in the story? His name is ...
- 11. Papa Mavuso is a human ...
- 13. The first-person narrator is ... Dlamini
- 14. Mafuso is an antagonist, like ..., who is the other antagonist in the novel.
- 15. If Mavuso is an antagonist, what is Regile then? The ...
- 19. Regile's inner conflict is about feeling ... again
- 23. The workers in the mine are ... miners.

- 24. Information on background, time and setting forms the ... of the novel
 - 25. The unlawful mining operations are run by ...
 - 26. Flat characters are ..., like Mavuso and Facman
 - 27. The antagonists are (friends / enemies?) of the main character
- Down
- 2. Regile is a ... character, because he changes during the course of the story
 - 3. Maphosa is the embodiment of ... the horror of life in a mine
 - 4. Another word for milieu could be ... in this case
 - 5. Who cooks for the zama zama boys when above-ground?
 - 7. The setting of the story is near the town ...

- 9. Illegal miners are known as ...
- 12. The sequence of events in a story is known as the ...
- 16. The main character, as the oldest, is in charge of the ... in the mine.
- 17. What kind of conflict is beating of the zama zamas?
- 18. The focus of this story is on ... mining operations
- 20. Another main character is Taiba, a ... boy.
- 21. The storyteller is an 18-year old boy from ...
- 22. ... can be described as cruel, ruthless and a slave driver.