

Name: _____

Date: _____

Crossword - Natural Resources

Across

3. Release of harmful stuff into the environment as a result of human activities is known as

4. Resources that cannot be replaced are called

12. The bulk of our food production depends on this natural resource

14. The practice of growing crops and livestock to produce food, fibre, and fuel is called

17. Which one is Renewable: Natural Gas or Solar Energy?

18. The warming of the earth's atmosphere due to build-up of carbon dioxide and methane is known as the

19. Is Biomass Renewable, or non Renewable?

20. Electricity produced by harnessing the energy of flowing water is known as

Down

1. Coal, Crude oil and Natural gas are examples of:

2. Energy resources formed in the earth's crust from plant and animal matter over millions of years are called

5. Resources that are constantly replaced by nature and can be harvested indefinitely are called

6. Power generated by utilizing the heat stored beneath the earth surface is known as

7. Natural Resources such as rivers, lakes, glaciers, and groundwater are called

8. This fossil fuel is in the form of a gas

9. This fossil fuel is in the form of a rock

10. Power generated from harnessing wind energy through the use of wind mills and turbines is known as

11. Rocks from which minerals or metals can be extracted for profit.

13. The process of extracting valuable metals and minerals from the earth's crust is called

15. This fossil fuel is in the form of a liquid

16. The process of turning raw materials into finished products in a factory