

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 2

Across

4. market in which goods and services are sold illegally
5. Type of economic system relying on habit, custom, and ritual.
8. forced common ownership of all agricultural and industrial enterprises
9. certificates that could be used to buy government owned property
10. GDP per person
11. System in which the government owns some but not all of the factors of production

Down

1. A central authority is making all of the decisions economically
2. organized way a society provides for the needs and wants of its people.
3. Conversion of state owned factories to private ownership
6. System in which some combination of all three economic systems exist.
7. the what, how, and for whom is answered by the people in this economic system.