Across
1. Jefferson’s second vice president
2. young Congressmen that took the lead in calling for war against Britain
3. believe in strict interpretation of the Constitution
4. an act replacing the Embargo Act that banned trade with France, Britain, and their colonies
5. conflicts involving another country
6. the state of not supporting or helping either side in a conflict, disagreement, etc.; impartiality
7. the court case that established judicial rule, the power to declare an act of Congress unconstitutional, created more opportunities for checks and balances, and increased the power of the judicial branch.
8. the state that 2 of the first 3 presidents were from
9. wanted a small government
10. the separation of voting ballots for president and vice president
11. wanted a big government
12. third president
13. problems between U.S. and France after the French Revolution
14. a group of advisers for the president
15. argued that the Alien and Sedition Acts were unconstitutional and interfered with state business
16. second president
17. an act granting the power to deport foreigners and made speaking out against the government illegal
18. the first year Washington was inaugurated
19. Jefferson’s first vice president
20. the state Adams was from
21. the first year Jefferson was inaugurated
22. the year Adams was inaugurated
23. original owners of the Louisiana Purchase
24. an example
25. an act that banned all trade with foreign countries
26. conflicts within the U.S.
27. believe in loose interpretation of the Constitution
28. an act granting the power to deport foreigners and made speaking out against the government illegal
29. first president
30. creation of three levels of federal courts

Down
1. Federalists
2. Democratic Republicans
3. foreign conflicts
4. Neutrality
5. Marbury vs Madison
6. Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions
7. Judicial Act
8. Domestic conflicts
9. George Washington
10. Hamilton
11. Adams
12. Madison
13. Franklin
14. Jefferson
15. Clinton
16. Monroe
17. Madison
18. Hamilton
19. Jefferson
20. Washington