

Cyberbullying

Across

1. Repeatedly sending offensive, rude, or insulting messages.
6. Breaking into someone's account, posing as that person and sending messages to make the person look bad.
7. The denial of access to particular parts of the internet.
9. The person who is on the receiving end of online social cruelty
15. Interactive web journal or diary posted online.
18. A person who is known for creating controversy in an online setting.
19. Repeated and deliberate harassment directed at another person.

20. Repeated harassment using electronic devices and networked technology that includes threats of harm.

21. Suicide caused directly or indirectly from cyberbullying.

Down

2. The one who instigates online social cruelty. Also known as the aggressor.
3. Evidence of a person's use of the internet.
4. Online fights using electronic messages with angry and vulgar language.
5. Intentional & repeated harm inflicted through the use of computers, cell phones, and other electronic devices.
8. Sharing someone's secrets or embarrassing information online.

10. Making a statement or taking an action that indicates harm to another.

11. Intentionally excluding someone from an online group, like a buddy list or a game.

12. Hardware or software that restricts and regulates incoming and outgoing data to or from computer systems.

13. An image or user name that represents a person online.

14. Software or a website that allows one's internet connection to be routed or tunneled through a different connection or site.

16. The act of restricting access to certain websites.

17. An image with text used to describe a thought, idea, or joke that is widely shared.