

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ecology Terms

Across

2. an organism that must eat to survive
 4. an animal that eats only plants
 6. a place or type of environment with conditions suitable for the survival of an organism or population
 9. A sequence linking organisms that feed on each other
 11. An organism that feeds on detritus

13. A community and its physical and chemical environment

14. A species that is sensitive to small changes in the environment

15. A group of individuals of the same species occupying a given area at a certain time

16. The populations of all species that occupy a habitat

Down

1. Waste from plants and animals, including their dead remains

3. The biological or living components of the biosphere

5. an animal that feeds only on other animals

7. A layer in the stratosphere that helps to screen out UV radiation

8. The number of species in an ecosystem

10. An autotroph; an organism that makes its own food

12. The non-living components in the environment; including both physical and chemical