

Weapons of World War One

Across

1. Used by submarines to blow up ships
7. A blade that is attached to the barrel of a rifle for use and close combat
8. Standard issue for all armies on the Western front to offer some protection against bullets and shell splinters
9. First used to deliver bombs inspiring work but then dogfights emerged
10. Causes blistering skin sore eyes internal and external bleeding death could take up to five weeks
11. Could shoot hundreds of rounds of ammunition per minute
12. A tank of nitrogen attached to a man's back that used pressure to spray fuel oil which was ignited as it left the muzzle of a small hands directed pipe

Down

2. An airship that was used during the early and bombing raids by Germans
3. A short stumpy tube designed to fire a projectile at a angle so that it fell straight down on the enemy
4. Protected troops from the enemy small arms fire and substantially sheltered from artillery
5. Causes A burning sensation in the throat and chest painful death- suffocate
6. Used to move ammunition; ridden by frontline soldiers