

Culture and Communication

Across

3. Your native culture
 5. Power that is more evenly distributed
 7. Learning a culture different from your native one
 8. Biological and Physiological qualities that characterize men and women
 14. Promotes the importance of future rewards
 15. Explicitly stated information
 16. Universal across all cultures
 17. Closely related to individualism and collectivism

18. Values Modesty, concern for relationships, and the quality of life
 19. Maintaining a positive public self image in the minds of others
 20. Being aware of and acknowledging culture differences

Down

1. The emphasis or stress you place on various syllables
 2. A fixed sign of a group or people
 4. Foster the curbing of such gratification and its regulation norms

6. opposed to universalism
 9. Is learned from society
 10. The tendency to see others and their behaviors through your own cultural filters
 11. Variations in a language
 12. Values aggressiveness, material success and strength
 13. Commitment to the beliefs and philosophy of your culture