

Name: _____

Date: _____

Video Terms

Across

5. common multimedia format used for video commonly played in Quicktime
 7. programs used to capture, edit, and manipulate video images, add effects, titles and music to create studio-quality video
 10. compressed video format designed for Windows but also viewable on Macs
 11. a mobile tripod or a moving platform for the camera; allows for smooth camera movement and tracking shots
 15. video file format originally designed for Windows; can be compressed or uncompressed, depending on the codec used
 18. a scene change in a movie; a quick move from one scene to another
 21. video format used to deliver video over the Internet using Adobe Flash Player
 22. a series of sketches that are used as a planning tool to visually show how the action of a story unfolds
 24. usually the first shot of a scene, designed to show the audience where the action is taking place
 26. a camera angle that shows the subject from above; camera is angled down towards the subject; not as extreme as bird's eye view
 28. open file format for streaming multimedia files containing text, graphics, sound, video and animation for windows platform

29. the process of preparing all the elements of a video production, including planning, storyboarding, script writing, scheduling, props, camera angles and locations
 30. a scene shot from directly above the action
 31. a camera angle that shows the subject from below; camera is angled up towards the subject
 32. the ability of a camera to compensate in cases where a subject with a large amount of background light would otherwise be obscured.

Down

1. raw, unedited material as it had been originally recorded
 2. all phases of production following recording of video, i.e. capturing, editing, titling, exporting, etc
 3. high speed interface that connects external devices; commonly known as IEEE1394; 1394A for PCs; 1394B for Macs
 4. software that will convert a video file from one format to another
 6. movie data file from a DVD disc
 8. the process of creating a DVD that will play in a DVD player
 9. video format used to deliver video over the Internet using Adobe Flash Player
 12. video that is not custom shot for use in a specific film (archive footage)

13. a camera angle which shows the subject as we would expect to see them in real life
 14. a technique for superimposing one video image onto another; most common colors are blue and green
 16. a camera angle that looks at the talking subject from the listener's perspective
 17. the process of recording video
 19. standard hardware interface for attaching peripherals to a computer
 20. a camera movement that scans a scene horizontally
 23. standard for compressing digital video; universal standard for digital video
 25. a planning tool that includes the "spoken" text of a video production
 27. a camera movement that scans a scene vertically