

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ovarian Cancer

Across

7. Generally a _____ examination and transvaginal ultrasound are used to diagnose ovarian cancer.
8. Using _____ powder in the genital area may increase the risk of this cancer.
9. About 20,000 _____ in the United States are diagnosed with ovarian cancer each year.
10. There are _____ main types of ovarian tumors.
12. Women who have never been _____ are at a higher risk for ovarian cancer.

13. For women who carry the _____ or other genes that predispose them to ovarian cancer have a higher risk.

14. Ovarian cancer forms in the tissue of the _____.

Down

1. The symptoms of ovarian cancer often mimic symptoms of _____ and digestive system disorders.
2. The standard treatment for ovarian cancer is surgery followed by _____.
3. No _____ test exists that can test for ovarian cancer in all women.

4. For women at a higher risk, doctors recommend surgery to remove the ovaries and _____ tubes.

5. Symptoms include vaginal bleeding, abnormal vaginal _____, pain or pressure in the area below their stomach and between their hip bone, back pain and a change in bathroom habits.

6. The majority of ovarian cancers are _____ carcinoma.

11. Ovarian cancer is _____ diagnosed in its early stages.