

Unit 1 Psychology's History and Approaches

Across

7. Mentored by James and was the first woman to be president of the APA
 9. Argued that natural selection shapes behavior as well as bodies.
 10. This psychologist used introspection to search for the mind's structural elements

Down

1. Synthesized animal behavior research and was the first woman to receive a psychology Ph.D.
 2. Led the way to humane treatment of those with psychological disorders.

3. This person championed psychology as the science of behavior and demonstrated conditioned responses on a baby who became famous as "Little Albert"
 4. The controversial ideas of this famed personality theorist and therapist have influenced humanity's self-understanding.
 5. This person was the main founder of functionalism and mentored Clakins.
 6. A leading behaviorist who rejected introspection and studied how consequences shape behavior.
 8. This psychologists established the first psychology laboratory in Germany and was seeking to measure "atoms of the mind."