

Chapter 10 & 11 Crossword

Across

2. Heart valve flaps become stiff from repeated bacterial infections
5. A hereditary disease that is caused by the lack of clotting factors
9. Decrease in oxygen carrying capabilities
13. Caused by long periods of standing resulting in pooling of blood in the legs and feet
15. Inflammation of the pericardium

16. Bone marrow becomes cancerous, resulting in large numbers of WBC being produced

17. Rupture of RBCs

18. Abnormal hemoglobin shape, which is spiky and sharp

20. Abnormally low number of WBC

Down

1. Abnormal increase in erythrocytes

3. A large amount of WBC, usually when fighting infections

4. A rapid uncoordinated shuddering of the heart muscle

6. Heart beats at its own rate usually slower than normal

7. Slow heart rate

8. Lack of adequate blood supply to the heart

10. Rapid heart rate

11. Small purplish blotches on the skin

12. A clot that develops in an unbroken blood vessel

14. Unusual heart sounds

19. A clot that floats freely through the blood stream