Across
1. A logical guess or conclusion based on observation, prior experience or textual evidence
3. The methods that a writer uses to develop characters through descriptions, appearance, and actions.
4. Events in the plot that gives the reader background information needed to understand the story.
7. Writing that describes an incident and includes a personal response to an incident and a reflection of the incident
8. Words that have opposite meanings
12. The perspective from which a story is told
15. Words that have similar meanings
17. A comparison between two unlike things without using the words like or as
18. A type of writing that explains, defines, clarifies, or gives information about a topic
19. To briefly restate the main ideas of a piece of writing in your own words

Down
2. The struggle between opposing forces
5. The central idea, message, or lesson that the author wants the reader to learn
6. The outcome of the conflict of a story, when loose ends are wrapped up
9. A type of writing that tells a story or describes a sequence of events of events in an incident
10. The series or sequence of related events that make up a story or novel
11. To study the details of a work to identify essential or important features or meanings.
13. A secondary plot that occurs along with a main plot
14. A conversation between characters
16. A comparison between two unlike things using the words like or as