

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 6 Vocabulary

Across

4. Democratic form of government in which the party with the greatest representation in the parliament forms the government, its leader becoming prime minister or chancellor.
7. The total value of goods produced and services provided in a country during one year.
10. A form of government run by a small number of people such as wealthy landowners, royalty or powerful military figures.
12. Materials or substances such as minerals, forests, water, and fertile land that occur in nature and can be used for economic gain.
13. Power is vested in the people, who rule either directly or through freely elected representatives.
14. A system that divides up power between a strong national government and smaller local governments

15. A person who organizes and operates a business or businesses, taking on greater than normal financial risks in order to do so.
16. An economic system combining private and public enterprise
17. A system of government where a head of government is also head of state and leads an executive branch that is separate from the legislative branch.

Down

1. The skills, knowledge, and experience possessed by an individual or population, viewed in terms of their value or cost to an organization or country.
2. An economic system in which economic decisions and the pricing of goods and services are guided solely by the aggregate interactions of a country's individual citizens and businesses.

3. Economic system in which traditions, customs, and beliefs help shape the goods and the services the economy produces, as well as the rules and manner of their distribution.
5. Goods that are used in producing other goods, rather than being bought by consumers.
6. An economy in which production, investment, prices, and incomes are determined centrally by a government.
8. A group of states that are joined together by a central government that has limited powers of authority
9. Government has power over everything.
11. a system of government by one person with absolute power.