

Name: _____

Date: _____

Short story Terms

Across

- 3. anything that happens after the resolution
- 4. where the conflict is introduced
- 6. clues or suggestions of events to occur
- 10. main character in the story
- 13. a character who contrasts severely with the main character
- 14. gave the short story form
- 15. a passing reference to something in literature or history

- 16. readers learn about the character through actions, dialogue, or how others react

- 20. character develops and grows during the story

Down

- 1. writing that tells about imaginary characters and events
- 2. a character "I" in the story
- 5. character shows only one or very few traits
- 7. characters, setting, basic situation, background, sets tone and mood

- 8. writer's attitude toward his/her audience and subject

- 9. a struggle between opposing forces

- 11. anything that stands for or represents something else

- 12. similar to a metaphor, in which a person or idea stands for something other than what it is

- 17. The main idea about life that the author is trying to get across

- 18. character shows many different traits

- 19. contrast between expectation and reality