

Soil and Agriculture

Across

2. The growing of one type of crop in a given area
7. Plowing along the contours of land to prevent erosion
9. When crops do not receive the nutrition
12. Revolution that recently occurred that brought GMOS to the market
14. Method of farming used on the sides of mountains to increase amount of crops grown
16. the layer of untouched rock located above the bedrock
17. Very top layer of the soil horizon
18. _____ happens with water forces fertilizer from its original position
20. Tool used to determine soil texture

Down

1. _____ is the process of removing trees from a habitat
3. Lowest layer of all the soil horizons
4. _____ is the process of changing crops yearly to maintain nutrients in the soil
5. Process of which water completely fill an area
6. Fences or trees strategically placed to stop the flow of wind are called
8. Chemicals used to kill any insects trying to eat crops
10. Man made crops designed to produce more food (controversial)
11. _____ is parallel to the crust and is made up of layers
13. Caused by excessive rain or over cropping
15. Second layer from the top layer of soil
19. _____ are used to stop the growth of fungus and bacteria in crops