

The Diary of Anne Frank Act 1 Vocabulary

Across

1. kept secret; hidden
4. an act of assisting or encouraging a hesitating speaker
9. cruel and oppressive government or rule
10. feel intense dislike or disgust for
11. an item of clothing.
12. in a gradual way; slowly; by degrees
15. a feeling of great happiness and triumph.

16. a violent or noisy movement, typically involving hitting something repeatedly.
17. becoming thin and tattered with age
18. rising or falling sharply; nearly perpendicular.
19. not embarrassed, disconcerted, or ashamed.
20. more than what is needed or used; excess

Down

2. in a thinly dispersed manner; in small numbers.

3. a bag with shoulder straps that allow it to be carried on someone's back, typically made of a strong, waterproof material and widely used by hikers; a backpack.
5. suddenly and unexpectedly.
6. move somewhere in large numbers
7. a pause; a break in activity
8. continuing for an extended period or without interruption
13. use of free time for enjoyment.
14. an angry argument or disagreement, typically between people who are usually on good terms.