

Name: _____

Date: _____

terminology

Across

2. the differences of opinions between different ages

8. implying that something ominous or negative is to come.

9. an economic and political system in which a country's trade controlled by private owners for profit

10. chauvinistic patriotism - love of one's country to an almost racist degree

11. the separation of people socially, due to the amount of wealth one has

12. when the audience possesses more information about what's happening than the characters themselves

13. the message that the author is intending to deliver

Down

1. everyone has a class eg. middle, upper and lower

3. one person speaking for a long period of time without other characters

4. a piece of writing expressing an argument about important social

5. a story presenting a lesson about good conduct and character

6. a world run by men

7. 2 characters who juxtapose with one another