Name: _____ Date: _____

All about mammals

Across

1. World's fastest mammal

3. LOWLAND STREAKED TENREC lives in the tropical lowland rainforest of what country?

9. All mammals give to live young, have mammary glands, and must have this during at least one phase of their life span.

11. This two humped Asian mammal grows to nearly 7 feet tall and weighs almost 1000 pounds

12. Which is the only mammal that can't jump?

14. They live in the swamps and rain forest of Burneo. These mammals use their ginormous nose to attact a mate

15. They are the national animal of Pakistan.

16. This animals name literally means pig-deer in the Malay language.

Down

2. whose scientific name is Saiga Tatarica?

4. Also known as the Coypu or river rat, this large, semi-aquatic rodent is native to subtropical South America.

5. This adorable marsupial was originally confused for a wild cat or a giant rat.

6. Animal species that are able to adapt to the different environmental changes

7. Which organ of the mammal is larger and more complex than any other animals?

8. This Austrialan mammal is one of only two mammals that lays eggs

10. The only mammal that can fly.

13. Mammals belong to which scientific kingdom?