

[illegible]

2. Dishonest or fraudulent conduct by those in power.

8. Someone consecrated to the service of God; their vows include not cutting their hair, abstaining from alcohol and avoiding contact with dead bodies.

9. A journey, especially a long one, made to some sacred place as an act of religious devotion.

12. Set apart for the worship of God; inspiring awe or reverence among believers.

1. The city where Samuel lived with Eli.
3. A building reserved for religious rituals.
4. An especially holy place; a place of refuge or safety, especially from pursuit or persecution.

6. Devoted to a task or purpose.

10. A solemn expression of thanks or request for help addressed to God; an earnest hope or wish.