

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ecosystems, biotic and abiotic

Across

3. A group of one species living in the same area

5. When one animal species kills and eats another animal species

8. A square frame of a known area, placed on the ground to get a sample of organisms living in that area

9. A substance that harms organisms if released into the environment

10. When organisms interact to get a limited resource that they both need

11. The place in which an organism lives

Down

1. A non living factor which can influence the distribution of organisms

2. All the different organisms living and interacting with one another in an area

4. When organisms need each other for resources such as food or shelter

6. Lack of water

7. A diagram of interlinked foodchains