

The Great Depression

Across

7. President Roosevelt made lots of changes in the first 100 days of his presidency to help people. Those were called the _____.

8. When World War II started, men joined the army and more workers were needed. By the end of the war, _____ was the richest nation on earth.

9. In November 1932, Franklin D _____ was elected president of the United States.

11. The Depression was worse for people who were _____ (rich or poor), because they could not pay rent and might not have food.

12. In March 1929, who became president of the United States? (last name)

Down

1. President Roosevelt started _____ which gives people money after they retire. It also gave money to people who could not work and orphans.

2. Tuesday, October 29, 1929 was when the stock market actually _____. It was called Black Tuesday.

3. The banks failed when people got scared and rushed to take out their _____, but the banks did not have enough money.

4. People had to sell their houses and made shacks all together in one place, which was called a _____.

5. October 24, 1929 is known as _____ Thursday. Stock prices were dropping until some rich men started buying stocks at a low price to help. (But it did not last.)

6. President Roosevelt 3 R's: Relief, _____, and Reform.

10. During the depression people waited in long lines for a free loaf of _____.