

Sports Medicine

Across

2. A physician who deals with the structure, functions, and disease of the eyes

3. Physician who specializes in the heart and heart disease

7. A medical professional who provides emergent care and transport of an individual to a medical facility

9. Athletic Training Education Program

10. National Athletic Trainers' Association

11. Physician who is concerned with the care of the foot

13. A physician who specializes in the ear, nose, and throat

Down

1. Individual who specializes in the field of athletic training; oversees entire sports medicine program

4. Who is skilled in the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of disease and injury in the mouth

5. A specialist concerned with the use of radiant energy (X rays, etc.) in the diagnosis and treatment of disease

6. A physician who specializes in internal medicine

8. Continuing education unit

12. Board of Certification-national certifying body for athletic trainers