Name:	Date:	Period:

Rae Lara's Floral Design Vocabulary word puzzle

- 7. What is a type of flower used to complete a design?
- 8. This is a design consisting of several layers of materials, varying in size and texture to create a flowering effect.
- 19. This method is a wiring technique in which the wire is inserted through the flower and a small hook is formed in the wire before it is pulled back into the flower.
- 38. What is defined as "corsage wiring technique in which a wire is inserted through the calyx and bent downward along the stem?
- 40. the geometric shape or line design that forms the outline of the arrangement
- 41. What is the relationship between the completed arrangement and its location?
- 43. What is the location within a design that attracts the most attention: the center of interest?
- 44. This is what a florist provides the customer in order to help them enjoy their flowers to the fullest extent.
- 45. What word is defined as "a feature of this style of design is the seasonal compatibility of the plant materials in the design?"
- 46. This is a technique characterized by parallel or surface contoured insertions that create a uniform area with little or no variation in depth?
- 47. What word is defined as "the tight positioning of flower cluster at the base of an arrangement forming rounded hills?"
- 48. What word is defined as "firmly wrapping or tying similar materials together to form a larger individual unit?
- 50. What word is defined as sells floral goods and services to the consumer.
- 51. What word is defined as the length of useful life of cut floral materials after being received by the customer?
- 52. What is the process of plants losing water through stomata in their leaves?
- S3. What word is defined as "a design technique in which branches of flowers are used around the perimeter of a floral arrangement to direct attention to the materials in the center of the arrangement?"

Down

1. What word is defined as "the Japanese style of floral arrangements characterized by their

- 2. What is defined as " the placement of cut material in a parallel design in each group in order to create depth?"  $\,$
- 4. What is a design that consists of clusters or groups of flowers and foliage that strengthens the element of line which moves the eye through the arrangement?
- 5. What word is defined as "a similar design technique to place similar materials horizontally on top of each other?"
- 9. What is the name of the primary or line flowers used in a design to establish the outline of the arrangement?
- 10. What is the process in which cut flowers and foliage have been tested to extend their freshness
- 11. What is a chemical consisting of a mixture of ingredients that when added to water extends the vase life of cut flowers by lowering the water PH?
- 12. What word is defined as cutting flowers stems properly and providing proper treatment at any stage of the distribution process ?
- 14. These flowers include a bride's bouquet, bridesmaid bouquet, boutonnieres, table decorations.
- 16. What is used to create focal point with unusual and distinctive shapes?
- 17. What is the cell process in which stored food reserves are converted into useful energy for the plant?
- 20. What is a citric acid solution that causes flowers to take up water rapidly to prevent dehydration after flowers are dry packed?

- 22. What is an asymmetrically balanced design of few materials usually placed in groups that emphasize forms and lines?
- 23. What is a combination of both natural and man made materials in an unnatural manner to
- 25. What is the action that growers, wholesalers, and retail florists must do with their flowers?
- 26. The purpose of this is to hide the mechanics in a flower arrangement.
- 27. What happens due to the inability of water entering the stem?
- 28. What word is defined as "the level of light received on a plant surface?
- 29. What is defined as two primary colors combined in equal amounts?
- 30. What is defined as "used as primary flowers to establish the skeleton outline height or with of
- 31. The element of the line in a floral arrangement is the visual path the eye follows as it proceeds through the arrangement.
- 33. This is a corsage wiring technique in which the wire is shaped into a hairpin.
- 34. What are usually single stem with large rounded heads used inside or along the arrangement to fill in?
- $\textbf{35.} \ What word is defined as supplies, methods and materials that designers use to place and hold flowers and foliage in an arrangement?$
- 36. What is constructed as light as possible using a number 3 ribbon as a bow and a wire number 24-28 depending on the weight of the flower?
- 37. What word is defined as " the process of converting nutrients, water, carbon dioxide and sunlight into food for plants?"
- 39. What word is defined as "the storage or shipment of flowers out of water?
- 42. What is defined as "the impression of the design being stable and self-supported"