

Name: _____

Date: _____

EPF Crossword

Across

- 1. A consequence of debt and not being able to pay rent
- 3. _____ uses revenues for philosophical goals instead of profit
- 4. A legal agreement enforceable by law
- 8. someone or something that is misleading or dishonest
- 16. Identity thieves send you e-mails in the name of banks, companies, or government agencies, trying to trick you into giving them your personal information.
- 17. To ensure compliance with a law or regulation
- 18. Newspaper table of interest rates is a _____ Fact
- 19. _____ is the United States' central bank
- 23. _____ -- someone who acquires goods or services

24. Internet source that ends in ".com" is a _____ Fact

25. Investors who want to become stockholders of a specific corporation

Down

- 2. _____ is statistical pieces of information
- 5. The payment made to the landlord to stay in the house
- 6. The landlord keeps this sum of money, usually equal to one month's rent, during the term of the lease.
- 7. The _____ monitors suspected anticompetitive business activities
- 9. _____ are people who help investors buy and sell stocks
- 10. in _____, dishonest salespeople use a special device that records (and steals) your credit or debit card information as they process your card.

11. A _____ is someone who rents out a house or apartment

12. A _____ is someone who rents a house or apartment

13. _____ is the letting of another person to move into the unit and or take over the lease

14. _____ occurs when a dishonest person with computer skills uses software to break into your e-mail and online accounts to obtain your information

15. _____ is a share of ownership in a corporation

20. _____ are things that are borrowed

21. The state law that addresses tenant-landlord issues is the _____

22. A _____ is a contract between a user and a owner