

Name: _____

Date: _____

STAAR Review

Across

8. At least 2 independent clauses separated by a fanboy.

9. March 13-17

11. A warning or indication for the future.

13. He lies so much! I am surprised that his nose has not grown like Pinocchio's.

15. He was as brave as a lion.

16. I was so hungry, I could eat a horse.

18. The name of the test English I and English II will be taking soon!!

19. Boom!

20. 1 independent and at least 1 dependent clause.

Down

1. It was windy in New Orleans during hurricane Katrina.

2. Type of language to express an idea or thought.

3. For, And, Nor, But, Or, Yet, So

4. A phrase that cannot stand alone and needs additional punctuation and words to be a complete thought.

5. A thought of the past which interrupts a scene in a text.

6. The groom had cold feet at the wedding.

7. A phrase that can stand alone and is a complete thought.

10. The stars winked at me.

12. Her long hair was a flowing golden river.

14. Since, While, When, (appears in a dependent clause)

17. Punctuation used to separate sentences and phrases.