

Clinic Theory II Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. Area of nerves, blood vessels, and tissues that surround the root of a tooth
5. How an abscess will appear on a radiograph
6. Removal of coronal portion of an exposed vital pulp
9. Complete removal of dental pulp
11. Pulp tissues are inflamed
14. A tooth that is also referred to as non-vital
15. Scraping or cleaning with a curette
16. After root planing, the surfaces of the root are smooth and like _____

17. Pulpal therapy where Calcium Hydroxide is placed over exposed or nearly exposed pulp
18. The number of probing depths taken for each tooth
19. A rinse that is the most effective agent available to reduce plaque; can cause temporary brown staining on teeth and tongue
20. _____ is least useful and can indicate either reversible or non-reversible pulpitis

Down

1. Commonly referred to as prophylaxis; general cleaning
3. One of the causes of pulpal damage

4. Specialty of dentistry that manages prevention, diagnosis, treatment of pulp and surrounding tissues
7. The material used to fill the root canal in RCT
8. Used to remove subgingival and supragingival calculus, smooth rough root surfaces and has a rounded end
10. Antibiotic that is useful for treatment of periodontitis
12. The type of anesthetic usually administered before gingival curettage
13. used to remove only supragingival calculus