

Persuasive Unit: Vocabulary

Across

4. Something that is based on person feelings and cannot be proven.
 5. Important to, connect with, or current topic.
 10. History and science books are:
 12. Dictionary or Encyclopedia
 13. Specifically were you got your information.
 15. Women were not allowed to vote and did not live up to the same equal status as men. People thought they were "inferior".
 18. Homework should assigned
 19. I hate dogs because one bit me when I was young
 20. Something that supports and proves a claim.
 22. According to the NEA.....(nea.com)

23. A negative opinion or feeling formed beforehand or without knowledge.

24. Something that can be proven, cannot be influenced by personal beliefs, and it's factual.

Down

1. Copy it word for word, put it in quotation marks, and identify were it came from.
 2. A general statement or characterization about a large group of people.
 3. Tammy: "Do you think we should have homework?" Sara: "I can't wait for lunch."
 6. Claim: homework should be assigned Counterclaim: homework should not be assigned

7. Your opinion about having no homework

8. A preference for something based on past personal experiences.

9. The argument that goes against someone's claim.

11. Trustworthy and able to be believed.

14. Cheerleaders are stupid

16. "Research shows people who play video games grow up to be violent." (Cracked.com)

17. The argument someone is making.

21. INFOhio or books