

Legal and Illegal Drugs

Across

10. When people intentionally use any kind of drugs for non-medical purposes

11. Most frequently used illegal drug in the United States made from morphine

12. A type of drugs that speeds up activities of the CNS by increasing blood pressure, alertness, and heart rate.

13. A drug that can be obtained only with a written order from a doctor

14. Taking a drug for which it was not intended to be used for

15. A drug that distorts perception, though, and mood. They overload the brain with sensory information, causing a distorted sense of reality.

16. A type of very powerful and dangerous stimulant

Down

1. Abusers sniff the drug into their nose, smoke it, or inject it directly into their bloodstream

2. A medicine that is sold legally in pharmacies without a doctors permission

3. A secondary, typically undesirable effect of a drug

4. A breathable chemical vapor that relieves heart pain, can cause permanent damage, heart failure, cardiac arrest, or suffocation

5. A drug that is referred to as "pot," "weed," or "dope"

6. Types of drugs that slow down body functions by decreasing the heart rates and lowering body pressure

7. A type of drug that changes the brain function and thought processes

8. A stimulant that is even more powerful than an amphetamine and is sometimes referred to as "crank," "crystal," or "ice"

9. A class of depressants that relax a person. Also known as sedative-hypnotics