

Name: _____ Date: _____

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs. Definitions and What Work Can Provide. You'll Need to Use the Same Word Twice.

Across

2. Need for friendship, affections, and love.

4. The process of understanding oneself more completely and feel fulfilment in what they do.

5. Praise for doing a good job, awards and rewards for achievement.

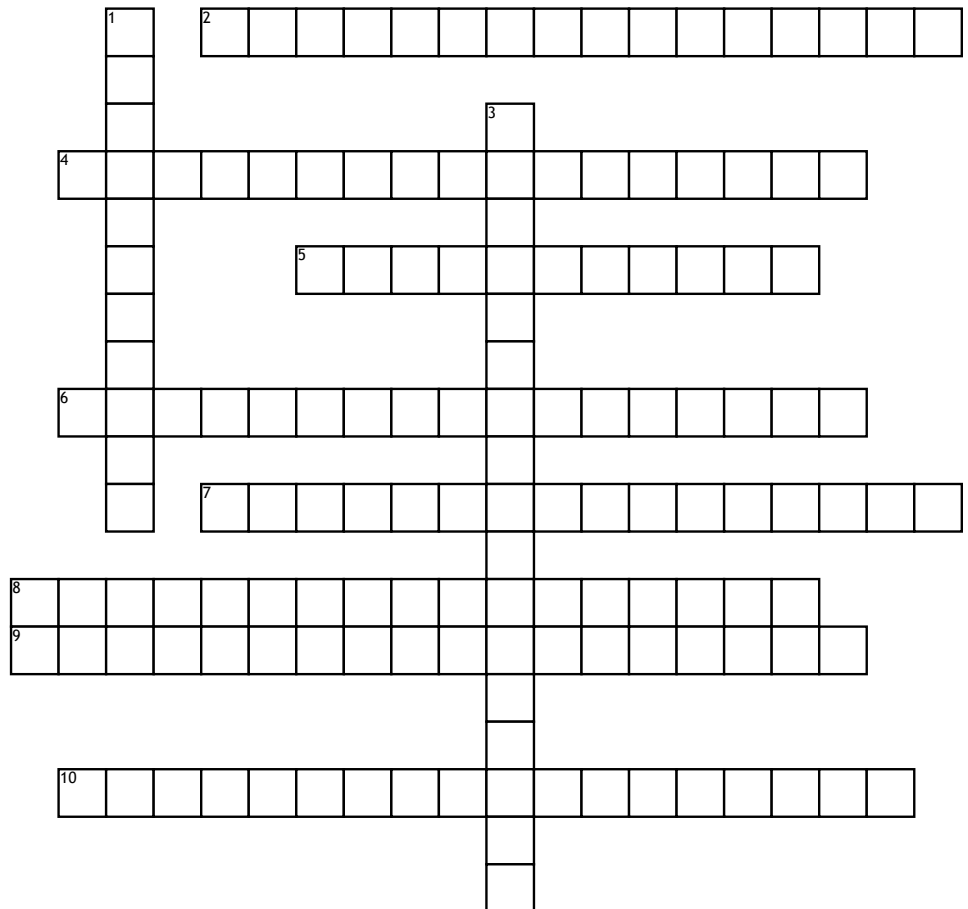

6. Opportunities to be challenged, creative, solve problems and make decisions.

7. Teamworking, good communication systems and social facilities.

8. People need protection from any form of danger and physical and psychological threats.

9. Adequate pay, subsidised meal and accommodation.

10. Located at the bottom of the pyramid. They are the basic human needs. They include food, shelter, warmth and rest. Without these, humans cannot survive.

Down

1. The need to feel achievement, competence, independence, and respect from others.

3. Job security and safe working conditions.

