

Harrison Bergeron Vocab Review

Across

5. Fear resulting from the awareness of danger
6. To crouch down in fear
8. To move or to operate at the same rate and time together
9. make fine adjustments for optimal measuring
10. To shrink or flinch involuntarily, especially in pain.

Down

1. Softly bright or radiant
2. When some thing is made up of exactly the same parts and they are facing each other.
3. Uncertain or unclear meaning
4. Anything that gets in the way of, or stops a person from being able to do something
7. The process of paying close and continuous attention